of the cemetery at Stafford Springs and one of the assessors of the town, and Mrs. Winnie May, wife of Fred A Green, a blind man, who is a charge of the town of Stafford, were brought before Judge James A. Shea of the police court Friday morning, the charge being They were arrested at 11.30 Thursday night in a lodging house at Main street, where they obtained lodging under the names of Mr. and Mrs. Miller. Butterfield, it was stated, had been suspected of intimacy with Mrs. Green, and his son-in-law, William Ducharme, shadowed Butterfield, following him to Willimantic. He no-tified the police department and with two officers went to the Main street lodging house, where he found Butter-field and Mrs. Green occupying the same room. The couple were arrested and taken to the police station.

At the hearing Friday morning the accused man and woman were represented by Lawyer Robert Fisk of Staf-Springs. Richard M. Fisk and Fire was discovered about 8 o'clock Friday morning in a barn on Frank Donda's farm at Gurleyville, the blaze being confined to one of the horse stalls. A few pails of water quickly extinguished the blaze. The cause of the fire is a mystery, as the owner of the property and his father did not smoke. The elder Donda went to the barn about 6 o'clock to feed the livestock and when he visited the barn the second time, about 8 o'clock, he discovered the blaze.
